A complete copy of the MIT Bulletin (Course Catalog) (<http://catalog.mit.edu>) and the entire set of Subject Descriptions as of August are available as PDFs on the MIT Bulletin Archive (<http://catalog.mit.edu/archive>) page. Subject descriptions (<http://catalog.mit.edu/subjects>) printed directly or downloaded from the website via the Subjects tab on a department or program page or from the Subjects pages includes any changes approved since August for the current academic year. PDFs may be quite long; please review them before printing to ensure they contain the information you're looking for and that you're printing only the pages that you need.

Detailed information about summer course offerings and schedules is available on the Summer Session (<http://catalog.mit.edu/summer>) website. The website is updated mid- to late spring each year.

Please contact the Reference Publications Office (referencepubs@mit.edu) with questions or comments about the MIT Bulletin.

For questions regarding Subjects (i.e., courses), contact the Registrar's Office (registrar-www@mit.edu).
